

Carlos J. Alarcon

Mediator

Carlos J. Alarcon has over thirty years of successful business experience in mediation, negotiation and risk management. He has focused on the energy, government, and financial services sectors, practicing both in for-profit and not-for-profit organizations.

Mr. Alarcon has over 1000 hours of mediation experience, 300 hours of training, and well in excess of 800 matters resolved. He has attained both Senior Mediator and Senior Negotiator status.

Mr. Alarcon is an instructor on various elements of mediation and negotiation and is on the faculty of a number of national training organizations.

Mr. Alarcon continues his own educational development in Conflict Resolution having attended Columbia University, Stanford University, University of California, Berkeley, the Straus Institute for Dispute Resolution, and the Sedona Conferences on E-Discovery and Electronically Stored Information Dispute Resolution since 2002.

Mr. Alarcon is recognized nationally in academic and financial circles for his thorough and innovative work and is acknowledged as a thought leader in conflict resolution and decision-making analysis.

Mr. Alarcon interfaces well with diverse groups offering outstanding analytical, negotiating, and problem solving skills. He has a unique ability to provide and implement effective methodologies and solution processes.

Mediation specialty services provided:

Business Small Business

Real Estate, Landlord-Tenant, HOA, HOA-Neighborhood Association, Homeowner – Homeowner, Foreclosure, Purchase and Sale Agreements

Employment, Wage and Hour – Care Facilities, Hospitality Industry, Wine Industry

Mediation | Negotiation | Consulting

Carlos J. Alarcon
(M) 707-319-2113
cjaralcon@thearcogroup.com
www.TheAlarconGroup.com

